CASE NO: 7:23-CR-40-WLS-TQL-2

ORDER

Previously, the Court provided the Parties with notice that this case was scheduled for pretrial conference on Wednesday, June 14, 2023, at 3:00 p.m. and for trial on Monday, July 3, 2023¹ (Doc. 27). In the event the case is not ready for trial, the Parties were ordered to file a motion to continue at least two days prior to the date of the noticed pretrial conference. (Id.) Defendant, Alexis Nicole Hogan, filed a timely Motion to Continue (Doc. 35) (“Motion”) stating Defense Counsel was appointed to represent Defendant on May 26, 2023, and as of May 31, 2023, Defense Counsel had not received discovery. Defendant requests a continuance of the trial to the next term of court in the Valdosta Division so that Defendant is given a reasonable amount of time to prepare for trial. Defendant states that failure to grant a continuance would deny Defense Counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation and resolution of legal issues, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. Defendant further requests that the period of delay be excluded in computing the time within which the trial must commence.

Based on the Defendant’s stated reasons, the Court finds that a continuance is required for Defense Counsel to effectively prepare for trial. The Court further finds the ends of justice served by granting such a continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the Defendant in a speedy trial. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A)-(B). Therefore, the Motion (Doc. 35) is GRANTED. The Court hereby ORDERS that the trial in the above-referenced matter be CONTINUED to the Valdosta Division November 2023² term and its conclusion, or as may otherwise be ordered by the Court.

Furthermore, it is ORDERED that the time lost under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, be EXCLUDED pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) because the Court has continued the trial in this case and finds that the failure to grant a continuance (a) would likely result in a miscarriage of justice, and (b) would deny Defense Counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), (B)(i), (iv).

The June 14, 2023 pretrial conference is CANCELLED.

SO ORDERED, this 1st day of June 2023.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

² The Court notes that the next term of court for the Valdosta Division is August 2023 with pretrial conferences scheduled for June 28, 2023. As Defense Counsel had not yet received discovery as of May 31, 2023, the Court finds it unlikely that the parties would be prepared for a pretrial conference in four weeks or for trial in August 2023. In the event Defendant desires that the trial be rescheduled for the August 2023 term of Court, he shall immediately file the appropriate motion with the Court.
